

ONLINE SCHOOL STRUGGLES

A new survey of 2,000 American parents of found...

of American parents are concerned about learning loss as the result of COVID-related disruptions to the previous school year

are concerned that their child's academic performance will be impacted by the shift to remote learning

TOP REMOTE Learning pain points:

- Bandwidth issues 54%
- Missing the group interactions of in-person class 40%
- Distractions in the remote learning environment 39%

TOPPED PARENTS' ✓ Online learning wishlists

and

1 in 4

parents want their child to learn how to code.

and

of parents say that this school year is a good one for their child to try it

believe that coding is the most important skill their child will need to succeed in the digital economy