

Major Challenges

Encountered by Students

While

Studying Abroad

Studying Abroad

GIVES A STUDENT A chance to grow

In the following post, you will find the few challenges that students often find in a foreign nation.

Language Barriers

Homesickness

FOMO
Fear of Missing Out

Cultural Differences

Time Zone War

Maintain a Budget!

Language Barriers

Practice more before the start of your studies. Ask local people for help. To fight with such barriers, make the best use of the translator app

Cultural Differences

Embrace the beauty of culture and act like local to be part of the group. Make effort to establish and cultivate meaningful relationships, make friends with at least 1 local.

Homesickness

Build up a new "social circle" and get used to the unknown city. get involved in new interests, adventure or any activity to be part of the mainstream.

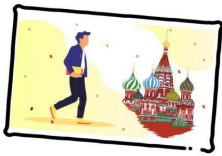

Time Zone War

Keep track of the time zone on a smartphone. Add all the relevant time zones in your phone. Try to remember the time difference by memory.

Fear of Missing Out

Minimize the time you spend cruising around the internet and spend some time to explore the place. Your night out in foreign country probably outdid the exciting things happening to your friends back home.

CONCLUSION

Enjoy the study phase of life. Take the journey of education abroad as a mission of life, and things will fall in place.
