

The Power of RepVisits: Simplify Visit Scheduling

The 2019-2020 school year provided another year of growth for RepVisits, helping more high schools and higher ed institutions streamline the visit scheduling process.

New: Enhanced Virtual Visit Scheduling

High Schools

High school counselors continued to use RepVisits as a free tool to easily post their availability and coordinate appointments with admission reps.

99% of high school counselors recommend RepVisits

Used by high schools in 47 states and D.C.

"We were able to more than double the number of college admission counselors who visited our school this year, giving our students the opportunity to hear about and consider colleges that might not normally be on their radar."

Higher Ed

On the other side of the desk, admission reps used the free and Premium versions of RepVisits, to maximize their scheduling efficiency and optimize their presence with students.

Premium institutions had: 256% more interactions with high schools

16% fewer travel days

9% more visits to high schools out of state

59% more visits per rep at Premium institutions

"Love using this service. Game changer in the field."

Leaderboard
